

Round Square Conference 2009

Co-hosted by Mayo College and Mayo College Girls' School

॥ तमसो मा ज्योतिर्गमय ॥

'Lead me from darkness of ignorance to the light of knowledge'

MAILER NO. 9

SEPTEMBER 24, 2009

Dear Round Square Colleagues,

Greetings from Mayo!

Our Muslim brethren have just had the festivities of Eid ul-Fitr (Eid) and the Hindu populace is gearing up for the festival of Deepawali. We in India believe that this is the time when the Gods awaken from their sleep and hence auspicious. We also believe in 'Atithi Devo Bhava' which means 'our Guest is our God'. We take immense pride in our school and have planned everything meticulously to the best of our ability. Hope we are able to live up to your expectations. I assure you that you will not find us wanting in hospitality.

The Conference is just round the corner and I am sure you all are frantically planning and judiciously packing your baggage to get the most out of your visit to India. India has much to offer to the world but you'll probably have just a glimpse of it all in the limited time you will spend with us.

This is probably the last mailer before we eventually meet, also, a time when I wish to draw your attention to a few imperatives.

There have been a few minor modifications in timings and venues in the conference programme. We wished to further fine tune the conference programme to make it convenient and comfortable keeping in mind the hectic schedule of the conference. The revised conference programme has been uploaded on the conference website. Please have a look.

Thanks so much for letting us know your travel details. May I please remind all those who haven't sent us the travel details to share it with us as soon as possible? It would facilitate, or should I say, guarantee a comfortable reception and see off. I am sure you will save yourselves a lot of inconvenience if you share your travel details with us and allow us to escort you all to Mayo and back.

A few schools have sent us the prayers. Many thanks for the same. May I request the others to kindly send the prayers as soon as possible? We need time to compile them if we have to distribute the prayers to all the delegates before they depart.

We are busy tying a few loose ends here and there; adrenaline is overflowing, apprehensions, anticipations and above all, the pressure to deliver what we have promised. Dear Colleagues, with your support, cooperation and encouragement, I am sure it will all culminate into a grand, memorable event.

Take care of yourselves and travel safely,

Regards,

Suren
